Public Comment:

Mr. Tony Roberts, 5109 Oak Way, Northport, came before Council to discuss the City of Northport’s vision for the future pertaining to Planning and Zoning regulations. Mr. Roberts went over a few of the Articles listed in the Planning and Zoning Ordinances and Regulations pertaining to green spaces, variances, etc. He explained that some of the rules and regulations pertaining to green spaces in subdivisions can be circumvented by developers. Mr. Roberts urged the City Council, Engineering Department, and Planning and Zoning team to review the current regulations pertaining to green space in subdivisions.
Pro Tem Sullivan expressed his appreciation to Mr. Roberts for expressing his concerns. Pro Tem Sullivan said that the regulations on green spaces are just a few of the issues the Planning and Zoning Board wishes to review and adjust.

Mr. Stephen Schwab, 2520 5th Street, Northport, came before Council to discuss community emergency training. Mr. Schwab explained that this training teaches communities the skills of how to react during emergency situations. Mr. Schwab said he has been concerned with community emergency training since the 2011 tornado that devastated the Tuscaloosa area. He said that he and his wife will be attending the “Community Emergency Response Team” training class in August and urged everyone to participate.
