Public Comment:

Mr. Kenneth Walters, 4813 Alums Avenue came before council to thank them for approving the budget which included a raise for the employees. He discussed a recent letter printed in The Tuscaloosa News that stated Northport should be more like Tuscaloosa. He said that he feels that Northport is moving in the right direction with progressive leadership. He mentioned that the lighting needs to be improved along McFarland Boulevard and hoped that the State would complete that in the near future. Mayor Herndon explained that the state will only fund 50% of road projects and the local government has to provide the other 50% match, unlike in the past where they would provide 80% and the government provided 20%.

Mr. Robert Lewis, 5000 Dove Creek Avenue came before council to commend the Police Department for doing a great job with the recent Run, Hide, Fight Training Class. He also commended the Fire Department for going out into the public and becoming more visible to the community.

Mayor & Council Member’s Business:

Councilwoman Hayes, District 1, absent

President Logan, District 2, wished everyone a Merry Christmas and encouraged them to donate to the West Alabama Food Bank. He also thanked the Council and staff for a great year.

Councilman Sullivan, District 3, thanked the Fire and Police Department, as well as city staff for their help with the ‘Twas the Night before Christmas 5K. He also thanked Mr. Reed Simmons for helping him present the check. He wished everyone a Merry Christmas.

President Pro Tem Acker, District 4, wished everyone a Merry Christmas.

Councilman Harper, District 5, wished everyone a Merry Christmas, and said ROLL TIDE!

Mayor Herndon, thanked the staff for doing a great job. He also thanked the Council for approving the budget and was pleased that it included an employee raise. He said he will be praying for the City of Northport in 2015 and encouraged everyone to do the same.
