Public Comment:

Ms. Annette Whitfield, 904 15th Avenue came before council to discuss her neighborhood. She said there are tarps put up in between the houses, abandon vehicles, loud music at 5:30 a.m., cars driving in between the houses, etc. Ms. Whitfield said she is attempting to clean up the neighborhood and asked the Council for suggestions as to what she needs to do to start the process. President Logan thanked Ms. Whitfield for addressing the council and said the Planning/Zoning & Inspection Department will check into the abandon vehicles and the overgrown lots and talk with the owners of the two (2) houses at the dead end street, the Engineering Department will put up Dead End signs in that area, and he asked Chief Card if the Police Department would please monitor this area in the early morning hours for violation of the noise ordinance.
